LOCAL NEWS.

This is the time to see the true to the business time.

The man who advertises is the man who gets the money.

AVOID HAVING TO PAY, holding a series of meetings at Moultrie.

A town that thinks it dead will never attract live people to it.

A new railroad is projected from Moultrie to New Madrid, Mo.

Clock at Rock Run from 7:15 a.m. to New stock.

Read this paper, then hand it to your neighbor and ask him to le, &c., &c.

Mrs. Ada White of Brookville, Florida, is visiting her sister, Miss Ada Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Anne Sherman are in Chicago viewing the World's Fair.

Wheat has reached a point so low that none of our farmers will sell who are not obliged to.

Tom Sherrill, a well-known and successful merchant, has resigned his last of construction.

Kentucky Lodge, Knights of Honor, will meet in regular session to night. Members invited.

I will sell Box Paper at cost for the next 60 days, in order to reduce stock.

4-21. — W. S. STRAUGHAN.

Flying rumors are so common, and so unreliable, that as a rule, it is best to pay no attention to them.

No business man can afford to have his hands out of the newspapers as long as he has anything to sell.

Mr. Catalogue prices on Watches and Jewelry. Call and examine my stock and get my prices for your business.

4-21. — T. J. SWAYN.

An exchange says that as long as a silver dollar will buy ten drinks, and a gold dollar will buy just the same number, there is a large amount of money sitting with the party of the metals.

What Kentucky most needs is a legislative ability," says the Louisville Journal. "We have the recently dissolved legislature abut one. It is unable to stay longer than any other one ever."

The protracted meeting at the Methodist Church closed Sunday night, Rev. J. H. Feltz returning to his home at Decaturville, Tenn.
The additions were made to the Methodist church during the meeting.

McGinty never went to the bottom of the well, as reported.
He only stepped down to Cox's grocery store to get a button prices in Painting Oil. Cox's Glasses. That's keep a full line of such goods.

Remember the barbers at Montgomery, Ala., who are to make the occasion a pleasant one to all who may attend. The festivities will be continued on the ground to come.

The strength throughout this section is becoming alarm. All classes of vegetation are literally burning up, and unless there is a rain to stop the process, there will be nothing left to burn.

—Farmers in some sections of the country have begun to feed their new wheat to hogs. They have a bushel of wheat to a bushel of hogs to fatten them on the wheel, which is worth less, taking the possible chances of a possible advance in wheat in the future.

—An up-country preacher started a congregation by announcing that he was suffering from hunger and that his annual salary of $100 had not paid him.

The Falls City Teachers' Institute will concur in the College building in this city on Monday, 28th inst. An interesting program has been prepared.

The engine for the Hickman Water Works is now in the factory and is being placed in position, and will be in running order in a few days.
Until then, our business men will have to resort to coal oil lamps for light.

—Everyone seems to look at the electric lights you will catch said. Go to Cowgill's Drug Store and buy a bottle of Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry, or some other good cold remedy.

—An unusual number of spots, big and little, on the sun is just now engaging the attention of astronomers. They can be seen with the naked eye.

—Piston Graphic, Miss Dora Cooksey returned to Hickman Sunday, much to the regret of her many friends, who she expects to teach school this fall.

SMITH, ELLISON & CO.

Mr. James Mason, of Union City, has been born and raised in this little drowsy town, and has lived here since the time of his birth. He is a good citizen and an exemplary Christian. He was brought up in the strictest methodism, and has undoubtedly done much good.

—While a party of young ladies and gentlemen were out boat riding on the river Wednesday night, one of them, Mrs. H. C. Moore, from Jackson, Tenn., lost her equilibrium and fell "kerching" in the river, and was lost for the moment. A number of these young men, who had been boating until dark, were not to be found.

—Mr. T. J. Feltz, Dr.
Geo. Burrows, Alfred McCandell, Lulu Martin, Oldham Kerlin, and several others, passed through Hickman, Wednesday evening, bound for the Cherokee Strip.
They expect to reach their destination in about two days, and to return when the weather is thrown open. We hope their expectations may be realized, and that they will each secure a good sail.
